NIAHAC June Meeting Minutes

Meeting held on June 16th '09 O'Leary's Pub, Woodstock, IL

Rorie Lindell kindly took the Minutes as Connie had to work late and was unable to attend.

The meeting called to order at 6:55 p.m. by Charlotte Kletecka, Vice President (acting President).

Rorie Lindell makes a motion to accept minutes as they appear in newsletter and Dhea seconds.

Jan gave the financial report, see balance sheet. Bills to pay coming in daily.

Membership is: 59 - full, 11 - youth and 20 - associate.

Char gave Class A Show Report: There were 207 horses and 682 rides (70 over '07). There was discussion of double judges/double show.

Futurity Report: A LOT of discussion here!!! Pat Szaflarski mentioned the Blanchard's donations and how we needed to send them a "thank you" (which I have done... homemade card, sent out two weeks ago) and their request that their website be hooked up or linked to ours somehow. I let Sharlynn know this and I believe she has it done this. The fact of a monthly/annual futurity report was brought up AGAIN and Char (as acting President) appointed Candy Larsen as futurity co-chair for 2010 with Tammy Anderson. Committee members also appointed are: Dhea Lamb, Pat Szaflarski and Rorie Lindell. It was mentioned that any other members who would like to join and assist this committee will be welcome at any and all meetings and be received with open arms. We will work to update forms, get stallion donations, etc. Futurity members, nominations and renoms, horses in the program and copies of entries/certificates, etc. will be researched and up-dated.

Dhea made a motion that all forms and fees be sent to the treasurer and the treasurer will forward this paperwork to the appropriate committee/chair. Jan seconded. This will include Hi-Point, Stallion breedings, Membership and Futurity.

There was some discussion as to the difficulty of transferring the newsletter to the website.

NEW BUSINESS:

'09 delegates to AHA convention: Our membership shows that two delegates may go. There will be a meeting in July. Members listed as going are Tammy Anderson and Carol Seidman.

Hi Point Report: Three new people signed up since the last meeting!!! It was mentioned that the reporting forms need to be on the website.

2010 "A" Show

State Fairgrounds increasing fees. Ribbons inventoried - 100 sets of 1st - 6th Championships - have or do away with? Sponsorships!!! Mike Bell - videographer. Offer NSH classes, second judge?

Next Meeting:

Futurity Committee meeting Fri. 7/24/09 at Candy Larson's, 7:00 p.m.

Next Club Meeting Tues. 7/28/09 at 6:30 p.m. Machine Shed in Rockford.

Rorie Lindell made a motion to adjourn and Charlotte Kletecka seconded at 9:00 p.m.

“Dreams don’t have an expiration date.”

David Niven, Ph.D.

Congratulations to all of you who are doing so well at the Regional Championships!
Best of Luck as you continue to show this season!

*Amanda Lamb
Raaz*

Condolences to the Lamb family on their loss of their Arabian mare, Raaz, who recently went to heaven's pastures. Many of you may remember Amanda and Kendra showing this wonderful chestnut mare at the NIAHAC Shows in the past. Raaz not only carried Amanda & Kendra to many a blue ribbon, but taught other children how to ride as well. Raaz truly showed everyone what owning an Arabian is all about... she was a best friend, a partner, a show horse, a trail riding buddy, a teacher, a mother, a babysitter, a shoulder to cry on, a good listener, and most of all, a member of the family. Our hearts go out to Dhea, Mark, Amanda & Kendra.

AHA Youth of the Year, Integrity and Perseverance

As the Arabian Horse Association's (AHA) Youth Nationals Arabian and Half-Arabian Championship Horse Show approaches, AHA continues to celebrate its 2008 Youth of the Year, Kim Luebcke of Peoria, Illinois. Luebcke, a college freshman at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, past Region 11 Youth Director and past Arabian Horse Youth Association (AHYA) President, maintains her role of Youth of the Year with grace and gratitude.

Each year the Youth of the Year subcommittee works to find an AHYA member who is an excellent breed representative. Criteria for the Youth of the Year award demands the highest standards of breed industry and community involvement, along with a stellar school record. Subcommittee members have, once again, found a representative who defines the excellence of our industry's future.

Luebcke's nominators speak glowingly of her achievements. Region 11 Director, Dave Waggoner, who has known Kim for most of her life, says, "I was so impressed with Kim's enthusiasm and poise. I'm quite pleased with her initiative and work ethic. Kim has very good people skills and has demonstrated her ability to build teamwork and enthusiasm among our youth ranks on many occasions."

In the show ring, Luebcke has earned countless Top 5s, a regional reserve championship, two regional championships and four National Top 10s. Luebcke's specialties are Arabian western pleasure and Arabian ladies side saddle.

Luebcke's academic life also reflects her initiative and work ethic. "Kim is a model student. She is reliable, dependable and a true leader," says Todd Hursey, Kim's Richwoods High School math teacher and cross country coach. Hursey commends Kim not only for her consistent hard work, but for her outstanding attitude toward anything she attempts. Luebcke's church ministry leader, Susan Rychener, calls Kim a "genuinely loving leader and mentor," who commits herself wholeheartedly and with integrity to the tasks she takes on.

As a mechanical engineering major, Luebcke earned a 4.0 her first semester and plans to get a master's degree in business after she finishes her undergraduate degree. This summer, Luebcke is interning as an engineer at the Los Alamos National Laboratory, a premier national security research institution.

"I love being able to make a difference, to work with people," says Luebcke. "I loved being AHYA President and going to inter-breed conventions, leading meetings," she says. Luebcke credits her mentors in helping her along with way; Kate Griffith, her early trainer, Randy Sullivan for helping her bring her riding skills up a notch, but most of all, Luebcke thanks her parents. Jackie and Phil Luebcke made sacrifices and taught Kim that hard work and perseverance pays off.

Anyone may nominate an AHYA youth member for the Youth of the Year Award. The regional director or director-at-large must approve Youth of the Year nominees. Nominations must be submitted to the AHA office postmarked no later than September 1. To read more about Youth of the Year visit www.arabianhorses.org/youth.

AHA is a major equine association serving 37,000 members across North America. It registers and maintains a database of more than one million Arabian, Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian horses and administers approximately $3 million in annual prize money. AHA produces championship events, recognizes close to 600 Arabian horse shows and distance rides and provides activities and programs that promote breeding and ownership.

For information about Arabian, Half-Arabian and Anglo-Arabian horses, call 303-696-4500, e-mail info@ArabianHorses.org or visit ArabianHorses.org.
