

Region XI Youth High Point Program

The Region XI Youth High Point Program was developed to recognize and encourage the continued participation of our Region XI Youth members.

RULES

1. The program is open to both youth members of all Region XI clubs who own or lease Arabians and Half-Arabians.
2. Enrollment and Program Fees. Youth members wishing to enroll in the 2008 Region XI Youth High Point Program should send an enrollment form for each horse-rider pair along with $5/horse-rider pair to the address below (Liz Rogan).
3. Reporting Results. Youth members who have enrolled in the 2008 Region XI Youth High Point Program may use copies of the enrollment form or in the text of an email (to Liz Rogan) to report their results in horse shows taking place during the 2008 calendar year (January through December). Members may submit results from 1 March, 2008 through 31 December 2008. All results must be received no later than December 31, 2008, in order to be counted.
4. Reportable classes are youth classes only, except in the event of championships in which no junior classes are offered; in this case, amateur classes will apply.
 - a. AHA Recognized Division. This division is open to any Arabian or Half-Arabian horse, rider-horse combination competing in a Region XI qualifying show held within the region which includes shows held in Illinois, Iowa & Missouri. Reportable results for this division may include 1) Class "A" or "B" competitions, 2) Results from the Region XI Championship Show, and 3) AHA Youth Nationals.
 - b. Non-AHA Recognized Division. Open to any Arabian or Half-Arabian horse, rider-pair competing inside Region XI in any show not recognized by AHA. Shows that qualify for this division include 1) State or County Fairs, 2) All Breed shows, 3) Fun or Schooling shows. NOTE: Morab and NSH only classes will not count.
5. All results must be sent in by the exhibitor via regular mail (United States Postal Service) or email within 30 days of the show.
 - a. There are no exceptions to this deadline.

- b. It is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to send in his or her results. The program coordinator will not be checking with show secretaries to obtain results.
6. Results submitted using copies of the enrollment form (through the regular mail), should be mailed to:
